

Department Curriculum and Instruction

Executive EdD in Curriculum and Instruction Professional Leadership Specializing in Reading, Social Studies/ Social Education

51 HRS

The Executive EdD in Professional Leadership is a 51- hour doctoral program (within the Department of Curriculum and Instruction) providing research and applied skills for educators grappling with current issues in education in urban contexts. The program is designed to facilitate the knowledge, skills and dispositions needed for professional and instructional leadership in urban schools, community organizations, museums and related educational institutions. The program is designed as a cohort model with online, hybrid, and flipped courses.

Program of Study

Core	9 HRS
Issues in Urban Education
Foundations of Education
Learning and Development
Research	9 HRS
Application of Research in CUIN 1
Application of Research in CUIN 2
Research in Area of Specialization
Specialization	12 HRS
(Reading, Social Studies/ Social Education, CUIN)
Leadership Courses	9 HRS
Laboratory of Practice	6 HRS
EdD Doctoral Thesis	6 HRS

Faculty

Dr. LaVeria Hutchison lhutchison@uh.edu
 Dr. Cameron White cswwhite@uh.edu

Houston's Carnegie Designated Tier One Public Research University

236 Farish Hall | 4800 Calhoun, Houston, Texas 77204-5027 | Mail Code 5027
 Office 713.743.0958 | Fax 713.743.4990